Siddharamaiah sworn-in as Karnataka's 24th CM

D.K. Shivakumar his deputy; 8 Cabinet Ministers also administered oath

Chief Minister Siddharamaiah, Deputy Chief Minister D.K. Shivakumar and the eight Cabinet Ministers seen with Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot after the swearing-in ceremony at Sri Kanteerava Stadium in Bengaluru this afternoon.

Bengaluru, May 20 (KMS & BCT)- Departing from the tradition of taking oath on the grand steps of Vidhana Soudha, the State Legislature, Congress Legislature Party (CLP) Leader Siddharamaiah preferred Sri Kanteerava Stadium for the swearing-in ceremony.

He was sworn-in as the Karnataka's 24th Chief Minister (CM) by Governor Thaawarchand Gehlot who administered the oath of office and secrecy this afternoon. In 2013 too, Siddharamaiah had taken oath at Sri Kanteerava Stadium.

Today's ceremony was held in the presence of thousands of Congress workers, a host of Chief Ministers and leaders of other States and about 20 regional parties.

KPCC President D.K. Shivakumar (DKS) was sworn-in as Deputy Chief Minister (Dy.CM). Along with the CM and Dy.CM, MLAs Dr. G. Parameshwara, K.H. Muniyappa, K.J. George, M.B. Patil, Satish Jarkiholi, Priyank Kharge, R. Ramalinga Reddy and B.Z. Zameer Ahmed Khan were also sworn-in as Cabinet Ministers. While all the leaders took oath in Kannada, Zameer Ahmed Khan chose to take oath in English.

Drawn in Delhi

Sources said that the Cabinet shortlist was drawn up in New Delhi after Siddharamaiah and Shivakumar camped in the national capital for a day and returned to Bengaluru yesterday to make their choices. After 20 names of 'loyalists' of Siddu and DKS camps were finalised, the High Command apparently picked the rest, keeping 4-5 berths vacant out of a sanctioned strength of 34.

The swearing-in ceremony was attended by Congress top brass Rahul Gandhi and Priyanka Gandhi, AICC President Mallikarjun Kharge, party Karnataka in-charge Randeep Singh Surjewala, AICC Gen. Secretary K.C. Venugopal as well as by multiple Opposition leaders, amid the grand old party's push to forge Opposition unity ahead of 2024 Lok Sabha polls.

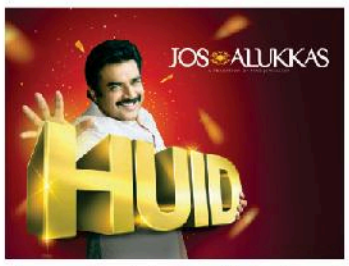
Jos Alukkas launches HUID Exchange Fest



Mysuru, May 20- Jos Alukkas, one of South India's leading Jewellery groups, has launched a slew of programmes including an HUID (Hallmark Unique Identification) Exchange Fest to accelerate the HUID hallmarking movement in the country.

The jewellery group, which is all set for a Pan Indian expansion, already upholds the Centre's decision to make HUID stamping mandatory for all gold jewellery manufactured and sold in India through its present process.

Being the first jewellery group which introduced and sold BIS-916 hallmarked gold jewellery, Jos Alukkas has already hallmarked 100 percent of its gold stock with the six-digit Alphanumeric Unique Identification Code (HUID). It did this soon after the order was released a couple of years back.

The Jos Alukkas HUID Exchange Fest is the first step of its kind towards the dissemination of the importance of HUID coding. Jos Alukkas only sells HUID-marked gold.

The Exchange Fest offers customers a fantastic opportunity to exchange old gold jewellery with new HUID inscribed gold jewellery with attractively less making charges. With HUID, everyone will be able to directly access and track the purity, weight and source of the gold jewellery. This will empower customers to not just know the purity of gold but challenge unethical practices in the market as well.

EDITOR'S BOTTOMLINE

After a spate of back-to-back disappointments when I felt I had tasted my Waterloo, I decided to bounce back. A well-meaning friend told me one way to do so is to keep a gratitude journal. It helps one rise from the ashes of despair like a beautiful Phoenix bird by chronicling a detailed conviction from the heart of all the things one is genuinely grateful for.

How does this journal work? One should rise and shine in the morning with some activity, like a walk or workout. This can be followed by a session of chanting universal prayers or mantras and positive affirmations that are motivating and inspiring. After the ADLs (Activities of Daily Living), one's mind is suffused with clarity, a perfect setting for making entries in the Gratitude Journal.

A gratitude journal serves to make major ameliorations in one's attitude, perception, and mindset at no cost and with no side effects. Writing it all down in a journal, a diary, or a notebook helps reinforce it as one counts one's blessings. It helps one override insecurities and fears by just showing that one has a lot going for them.

It is all the more beneficial in these current times when war has broken out in Ukraine and unrest is prevalent in various war zones, including our very own Kashmir. In such volatile situations, there's much to say "thank you" for — for having a loving family, for having food on the table at meal times and for having vocations and jobs to keep one gainfully employed. The world is indeed a poorer place if one doesn't count one's blessings.

Snake knocks out power for 16,000 consumers

Texas: Officials with a Texas power company said about 16,000 customers lost power when a snake slithered into a substation and came into contact with equipment.

Matt Mitchell, a spokesman for Austin Energy, said the outage began about 1 pm on Tuesday which affected about 16,000 customers at its peak.

"Wildlife interference can result in power outages," Austin Energy tweeted. "Today a snake crawled into one of our substations and made contact with an electrified circuit."

The company said power had been restored for all affected customers by 2 pm.

Mitchell said wildlife is often to blame for outages, but squirrels are far more frequent perpetrators than snakes.

Mitchell said the company is now in the process of installing low-voltage electric snake fences around substations to keep slithering reptiles out.

Driver turns cab into library

Rasht: A taxi driver in Iran's Rasht city has turned his car into a library to encourage his passengers to read books in his taxi.

Sahel Filsoof, who has turned his shuttle taxi into a mobile library, believes that people could solve many of their problems by reading books.

"The idea to lodge my taxi with books hit me long time ago," Filsoof said adding that he thought reading books may provide the public with mental fodder.

His taxi exhibits some 50 books on different subjects, including psychology, children and history and the fans of his taxi-library are mostly women and young men, he was quoted as saying.

REALLY...?

- Natural rubber comes from the sap of the Hevea Brasiliensis tree. It takes six years before trees can produce sap — they are then productive for around 28 years. A typical tree can produce 19 pounds of rubber each year.
- The first people to use rubber were the natives of Central America. They made rubber balls and boots around 1600 BC. Christopher Columbus first witnessed natives in Haiti playing with a rubber ball in 1495.
- 'Black carbon', a reinforcing filler, is what makes car tyres black. The more intensely the filler is linked with the natural rubber, the higher the strength of the rubber.
- The first rubber factory was founded near Paris in 1803. At that time, they mainly produced suspenders and garters.

Provide garbage bins at Rajivnagar 3rd Stage, Ring Road areas

Sir,

Mysuru city has been adjudged the cleanest medium city in Karnataka in Swachh Survekshan-2022 rankings. But our city is not completely clean because of the foul smell emanating from waste dumps and burning of waste materials causing environmental and health hazard.

Despite paying regular taxes to the MCC, there are no proper garbage bins in and around Rajivnagar 3rd Stage (Ring Road areas) to dump the wastes.

Will our elected representatives have a look into this issue and take proper action to reduce this garbage menace and keep our area clean and safe by placing trash bins?

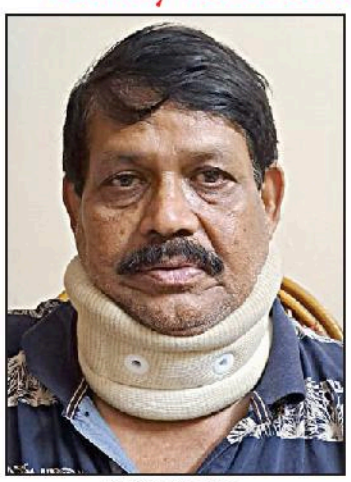
Bike-borne men snatch bag with Rs. 1.34 lakh

- Victim was walking towards home from bank; Police suspect criminals might have followed him
- Hazy CCTV footage of two criminals speeding away on a busy road obtained from shops



Victim Madan

CCTV footage of two criminals speeding away on a busy road.

Mysuru, May 20 (SBD&BCT)- While incidents of criminals looting jewellery and cash from shops and business establishments have seen a downward trend of late, the acts of robbing people who return from banks with cash bags have resurfaced after a lull.

Yesterday, one such incident was reported from Kuvempunagar where a cash bag containing Rs. 1.34 lakh was snatched by two bike-borne men at around 11.50 am. The incident that occurred in broad daylight in a crowded area has unnerved residents, especially senior citizens. The cash bag was snatched from 63-year-old Madan, a resident of Kuvempunagar KHB First Stage.

Madan was suffering from spondylitis and had undergone a surgery and as per the advice from the doctors, he was avoiding driving his vehicle and preferred to walk short distances for errands. Due to urgent financial requirements, he went to the M-Block SBI branch on Nrupathunga Road yesterday and the bank was about half-a-kilometre from his house.

Victim was crossing road

After reaching the bank, he presented a cheque to withdraw Rs. 1.34 lakh and put the cash inside his cloth bag. Madan headed out from the bank to his home and as he reached the Ganapathi Temple on Nrupathunga Road at around 11.50 am, two bike-borne criminals slowed down the bike behind Madan and the pillion rider snatched the bag.

Madan was crossing the road and the miscreants timed their act perfectly and the Police suspected that Madan was being followed from the bank. A shell-shocked Madan took some time to realise that the cash bag had been snatched. But by then, the criminals sped away towards Kuvempunagar Complex.

Due to his health condition, Madan could not raise an alarm immediately. However, by the time he shouted for help, the criminals had vanished from the scene. Another two-wheeler stopped by and based on the directions provided by Madan, the rider looked around the surrounding areas for the bike and the criminals in vain.

Daring daylight crime

Deputy Commissioner of Police (Crime and Traffic) S. Jahnavi and other officers visited the spot and collected details from Madan and the people around.

What is baffling for the Police is the daring daylight crime committed by two men, that too in a usually busy area.

Scanning the CCTV visuals of nearby shops and business establishments, the Police have been able to see the crime scene and how the duo made an escape after snatching the cash bag. The Police have obtained a couple of hazy visuals but efforts are on to trace the vehicle, its make and the ownership details. The faces of the criminals are not clear in the visuals and efforts are on to use technology to establish the identities, Police said.

In his statement to the Police, Madan said that he had wrapped the cash bag around his hand and was walking slowly when the criminals struck. He said that he was walking on the footpath from the bank and was crossing the road near the Ganapathi Temple when the incident occurred.

Madan told Star of Mysore that he needed cash for his medical treatment and apart from cash, the bag contained his Aadhaar Card, cheque book, pass book and other documents. "I could not note down the bike's registration number but the pillion rider was wearing a blue shirt and it looked like a Pulsar bike. They sped away towards Kuvempunagar Complex," he said.

College lecturer arrested for sexually harassing student

Mysuru, May 20 (BCT)- A lecturer of a college in Mysuru has been arrested by the City Police on charges of sexually harassing a female student. According to a press release from the Police, the lecturer stands accused of sending sexually explicit photos, videos and messages to the student's mobile phone, as well as subjecting her to sexual harassment.

Additionally, the accused had been coercing the girl by threatening to manipulate her exam grades and fail her in the internal examinations if she disclosed the matter to her parents.

The complaint was lodged at Lashkar Police Station, leading to an investigation that resulted in the lecturer's arrest on May 3. The lecturer has since been placed under judicial custody.

The investigation was carried out by Lashkar Inspector P.P. Santhosh, Sub-Inspectors Chandrashekar and Anil Kumar, ASI Siddaraju and staff Chethan, Lingaraju, Chinnappa, Manjunath, Nadaf, Sathya and Manjunath Ramesh with the guidance of senior officers.

Two extortionists held

Mysuru, May 20 (BCT)- In separate incidents, the City Police have arrested two individuals for suspected extortion in different locations within the city. During the arrests, the Police recovered two mobile phones valued at Rs. 44,000 and Rs. 2,000 in cash.

A complaint was registered at Nazarbad Police Station regarding a theft involving a couple who were riding a two-wheeler on the Bengaluru-Nilgiri Road on May 11. It was reported that two individuals on a motorcycle had snatched a mobile phone and a purse containing cash from the complainant's wife.

Acting on the complaint, Nazarbad Police arrested the duo on May 12. Following interrogation, the pair admitted to another alleged extortion incident within the jurisdiction of Lakshmipuram Police Station. Nazarbad Inspector K. Santhosh, Sub-Inspectors Vaishali A. Biradar and Srinivas Patil and staff Satish Kumar, Kiran Rathod, Santhosh Kumar and Kumar of technical division carried out the investigation with the guidance of senior officers.

40 percent drop in blood donations in Mysuru

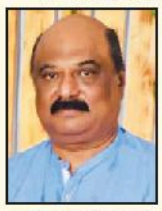
Shortage disrupts collection of blood for surgeries and other medical conditions

Mysuru, May 20 (CN&BCT)- Blood transfusion service is an essential component of healthcare. While the post-COVID pandemic scenario has contributed a downward spiral in blood donors, the situation has not improved yet and Mysuru is witnessing a 40 percent shortage, despite fewer COVID cases in the last few months.

Several blood collecting organisations said donations had dipped to one-third of what was being collected in 2019 and the situation has not improved. The shortage of blood is directly affecting patients who are readying for surgeries and pregnant women who need to undergo emergency surgeries. The demand for blood traditionally comes from trauma cases, antenatal and surgeries or treatments.

The decline has been linked to closure of degree and other educational institutions due to examinations, lack of blood donation camps and also a public hesitancy stemming from past infections and post-COVID complications. Amid shortages, many patients have been asked to bring their own donors — family or friends.

'Situation to improve after June'



Dr. Manjunath

This is holiday and exam season and as such, mass blood donation camps have not been organised. But we have ensured that the in-patients of the hospital are not impacted due to the blood shortage. Every day, we need 50 to 60 units of blood and we are getting them from registered donors and their contacts. Many camps including NCC and NSS will be held soon after the colleges begin and the situation will improve.

—Dr. B.S. Manjunath, K.R. Hospital Blood Bank Officer

Over 84 percent of blood donations are collected through voluntary non-remunerated donors. In Mysuru, there are eight blood banks and the overall shortage is pegged at 40 percent. At the K.R. Hospital Blood Bank, over six blood donation camps were held every month earlier and these camps have come down to just two to three now.

Earlier, 250 to 300 units of blood used to be collected through such camps but now the collection has been reduced to 130 to 150 units. Blood shortages are especially high during March-July, during exams and vacations, when the number of voluntary donors and blood donation camps falls. These days, new avenues like social media are being used to attract more voluntary donors.

Speaking to Star of Mysore, District Secretary of Red Cross Society S.S. Vaidyanath said that there has been no mass blood donation camps in the last two months. "Yes, there is a 40 percent shortage and we are in continuous touch with the donors and their family members. Also, there is a declining trend of voluntary donors. Many NGOs and voluntary organisations usually would organise blood donation camps and this year they have taken a hit," he explained.

Even politicians and the local MLAs would organise blood donation camps but this year, their hands were tied due to the imposition of the election model code of conduct. "We are organising the World Blood Donors Day on June 14 and we are conducting a series of awareness programmes and we hope that the shortage situation will ease then," Vaidyanath added.

Vikram Muthanna

King Cong

Soon after Congress got an overwhelming mandate, an otherwise stern and emotionless D.K. Shivakumar (DKS) shed tears of joy before the media. Now, he is probably shedding tears of disappointment as he did not get the Chief Minister's chair. Unfortunate for a man who has been a Congress workhorse all his life.

While many may believe DKS would not have been the right choice because of corruption issues, lack of experience and his inability to become a mass leader, one has to sympathise with him all the same.

DKS has been a true Congressman. He has been its most sincere worker and its saviour. He has organised the most visible rallies and helped save Congress Governments from Gujarat to Maharashtra.

While some Congress leaders today cite DKS' 'corruption' as an issue, the same leaders had no qualms using his money to organise rallies, win votes and save Governments. Let it be. That's just politics.

Many DKS' supporters argued that Siddharamaiah had been the Deputy CM and CM uninterrupted for five years, so why again? They even asked how Congress leadership could choose someone whose supporters brought down a Congress Government. How could they choose a person who allegedly was instrumental in the defeat of both Dr. G. Parameshwara, who was then the KPCC Chief and Mallikarjun Kharge so that they both would not be contenders for the CM's post?

Well, D.K. Shivakumar's supporters forgot who Siddharamaiah is — he is the child of destiny.

When it comes to politics, Siddharamaiah is a lucky man. A man who became Dy.CM after being an MLA for just seven years, then CM by being in another party for just seven years and now CM again from the same party! While people who have been in Congress party for over two decades have been deprived of that gaddi.

That 'lucky-Siddu' streak continues as Mallikarjun Kharge is made to sit in Delhi, Dr. Parameshwara is rendered irrelevant and DKS is forced to accept the Deputy CM post, a position that is not even 'Constitutional,' let alone powerful.

It's clear, Siddharamaiah is the King of Congress in Karnataka.

While we could sympathise with DKS, we Mysureans have reason to be happy as Siddharamaiah, a Mysurean, is the CM. More importantly, we can be hopeful of development as Siddharamaiah gets things done. If we have the new Government Hospitals, which helped us during COVID-19 or the few white-topped roads or the new Maharani's College, it is because of him.

We are told that the Karnataka CM's position is like Club Mahindra — a time-share property. The CM position will be shared for two-and-a-half years by Siddharamaiah and two-and-a-half by DKS.

But knowing Siddharamaiah's luck, he might complete the five years himself, if DKS is convicted in the corruption cases that are still pending before the Enforcement Directorate (ED)!

Now, Siddharamaiah is CM for the first half. Good choice. He has the experience and has some semblance of 'social responsibility' and financial probity, which is much needed, or else Karnataka will go bankrupt implementing the five over-zealous promises that Congress has made. However, what does Siddharamaiah's crowning mean for us, the people of Karnataka?

First, his ability to show the bureaucracy its place. When political leaders are weak or malleable, the bureaucracy takes them for granted and takes us, the public, for a ride. Cunning deals are fixed, politicians are pitted against each other and works are delayed. With Siddharamaiah, a straight shooter, maybe for once, they will do their job so as not to face his infamous wrath.

Certain sections of bureaucracy fear him so much that it was rumoured in the 2018 election that numerous officers reportedly donated huge amounts of money to the opposition party to defeat Siddharamaiah. At least with Siddharamaiah at the helm, good officers may finally have a chance to shine.

Second, he's not a man of deals. Yes, all politicians are forced to make deals and compromises, but some know where to draw the line. And Siddharamaiah knows where to draw a clear line between profiteering and public service. After all, he was once a Socialist who still retains certain pragmatic Socialist principles.

Third, and probably one of the best aspects, he is an agnostic. He does not believe in religion but does in God. He visited places of worship during the last election and also this election, but it was more for political optics.

Instead of the Government spending our money on religious centres, it may now spend it on developing crucial infrastructure projects, education and health.

Incidentally, Siddharamaiah stood up in the Assembly and spoke vehemently against giving money to the religious centres when BJP went on a religious enrichment-spree.

To add, he does not give prominence to caste. Yes, he is known as a Kuruba leader, but he has surrounded himself with advisers and assistants from all castes. This is why he is seen in political circles as a secular politician. Many say he and H.D. Deve Gowda were the 'S' in JD(S).

All of the above traits I mentioned are of the 'original Siddharamaiah' before he turned a Congressman.

Since he joined Congress, he has been tainted by the ways of the 'Big Elitist Party' and influenced by the affluent Congress leaders.

Only after joining Congress was a Socialist-Siddharamaiah seen wearing expensive watches, driving in very expensive cars, wearing designer shoes and turning away when his new Congress colleagues indulged in corruption.

In his new Congress avatar, he killed Lokayukta instead of giving it more teeth. He raked up the Tipu Jayanthi issue and tried to split Lingayats. All just to win. Not to be the reformer that he once hoped to be.

But now, with the five guarantees, maybe Siddharamaiah is returning to his roots.

If Siddharamaiah is truthful when he says this is his last hurrah in electoral politics, it's time to become the old Siddharamaiah — the leader we, as young journalists, admired years ago.

Siddharamaiah, if he wants to leave a lasting impression, he has to return to what he truly was … not just a Kuruba leader or an AHINDA leader but a genuinely secular leader who is conscious about social reforms. A leader who can implement pragmatic social security schemes while encouraging industry as it helps create jobs and wealth which can pay for those schemes.

If Siddharamaiah wants to be remembered by all Kannadigas as a Statesman who left behind a better Karnataka, he must become the old Siddharamaiah.

So will the old Siddharamaiah please stand up? ...Let's hope so.

Before the ceremony, Siddharamaiah and Shivakumar held hands together and displayed a show of unity along with leader Rahul Gandhi and the move was greeted with loud cheers.

The mega ceremony began at 12.40 pm and was attended by over 35,000 people who came from across the State and over 10,000 were ferried from Mysuru in buses and other vehicles. Party workers departed Mysuru early in the morning in vehicles that sported Congress flags.

Several prominent Opposition leaders including Tamil Nadu CM M.K. Stalin, Bihar CM Nitish Kumar, Chhattisgarh CM Bhupesh Baghel, Himachal Pradesh CM Sukhvinder Singh Sukhu, National Conference President Farooq Abdullah and NCP President Sharad Pawar, Bihar Dy.CM Tejashwi Yadav, Rajasthan CM Ashok Gehlot, Congress leader Kamal Nath, Communist party leaders Sitaram Yechuri and D. Raja, PDP Chief Mehbooba Mufti, Actor and Makkal Needhi Maiam Chief Kamal Haasan, former Puduchery CM Narayanasami, actor Shivarajkumar, wife Geetha Shivarajkumar, actor 'Duniya' Vijay also attended.

West Bengal CM and TMC Chief Mamata Banerjee, who received a telephone invitation from Siddharamaiah, expressed her inability to attend the ceremony but deputed MP Kakoli Ghosh Dastidar to be at the swearing-in.

Speech after swearing-in

Rahul promises clean Govt.

In another deviation from the tradition of swearing-in ceremonies where speeches are not usually held, Congress leader Rahul Gandhi addressed the gathering, thanking the State public on behalf of the party and leaders. He promised that the five promises made during the elections will become laws in the first Cabinet meeting of the new Government.

"After Congress' victory, many things were written as to how Congress won this election, different analyses were done but I want to say that Congress won because we stood with the poor, Dalits and Adivasis, minorities and backwards. We had truth and poor people with us," he noted.

"We know the problems you've faced in the last five years. The BJP had power, money and everything else. But the public of Karnataka defeated them, their corruption, and their hate," he said.

"We made five promises — Rs. 2,000 monthly assistance to women heads of all families, 200 units of power to all households, Rs. 3,000 every month for graduate youth and Rs. 1,500 for diploma holders, 10 kg rice per person per month for BPL families and free travel for women in the State public transport buses. We don't make fake promises. We do what we promise," he added.

Chief Minister Siddharamaiah, AICC President Mallikarjun Kharge also addressed the gathering and committed to the people that all the guarantees will be fulfilled.

RBI withdraws Rs. 2,000 notes from circulation

Asks all to exchange or deposit them by Sept. 30

New Delhi, May 20 (Agencies)- The Reserve Bank of India (RBI) made an announcement last evening regarding the withdrawal of Rs. 2,000 note, the highest value currency note in circulation.

However, the RBI clarified that these notes would still be considered legal tender. Existing Rs. 2,000 notes can be deposited or exchanged in banks until Sept. 30, with a limit of Rs. 20,000 at a time.

The central bank advised the public to deposit their Rs. 2,000 notes, which were introduced during the demonetisation in November 2016 when Rs. 500 and Rs. 1,000 notes were withdrawn, into their bank accounts or exchange them for notes of other denominations at any bank branch. Furthermore, the RBI instructed banks to cease issuing Rs. 2,000 notes immediately.

To ensure convenience and avoid disruptions in bank operations, the exchange of Rs. 2,000 banknotes can be conducted up to a limit of Rs. 20,000 at a time, starting from May 23, at any bank. Additionally, all banks are required to offer deposit and/or exchange services for Rs. 2,000 banknotes until Sept 30, 2023, in order to allow sufficient time for the public to complete the process. Deposits into bank accounts can be made without restrictions, following the usual procedures and applicable regulations, as per the RBI.

This is a routine exercise, similar to the withdrawal of currency notes printed before 2005 carried out by the government in 2013-2014. This move should not be interpreted differently, as it is a practice followed by various countries, including the United States, from time to time.

According to the RBI, around 89 percent of the Rs. 2,000 notes were issued prior to March 2017 and have now reached their estimated lifespan of four to five years. The total value of these banknotes in circulation has decreased from its peak of Rs. 6.73 lakh crore as of Mar. 31, 2018 (37.3% of total notes in circulation) to Rs. 3.62 lakh crore, which now constitutes only 10.8 percent of notes in circulation as of Mar. 31, 2023.

It is worth noting that the RBI had previously undertaken a similar withdrawal of notes from circulation in 2013-2014. The introduction of the Rs. 2,000 note in November 2016, under Section 24(1) of the RBI Act, 1934, aimed to meet the immediate currency requirements of the economy after the withdrawal of legal tender status for all Rs. 500 and Rs. 1,000 notes in circulation at that time.

Dr. Bhujang Shetty completed his medical course in 1978 at Bangalore Medical College, where he also pursued his ophthalmology residency at Minto Ophthalmic Hospital in 1982. Following his training, he established a small clinic in the 1980s, which eventually grew into Narayana Nethralaya. He served as a cataract and phacoemulsification surgeon.

Dr. Shetty played a significant role as an advocate for eye donation. In 1994, he successfully enlisted the support of Kannada film legend Dr. Rajkumar for the cause, leading to the establishment of Dr. Rajkumar Eye Bank.

This initiative received a substantial pledge from the late actor to donate his eyes after his demise. Over the years, the eye bank has made a positive impact by restoring vision for numerous individuals. The family of Dr. Rajkumar, as well as Dr. Puneeth Rajkumar, generously donated their eyes to the eye bank following their demise.

Siddharamaiah, Shivakumar, Bommai condole

Expressing his heartfelt condolences, CM Siddharamaiah took to his Twitter account to acknowledge Dr. Shetty's significant contributions, describing him as a beacon of hope for millions of individuals and their families whose sight was restored through his expertise. Deputy CM D.K. Shivakumar also mourned the loss of Dr. Shetty, emphasising his immense service in the field of healthcare.

Former CM Basavaraj Bommai acknowledged Dr. Shetty's remarkable work in bringing light into the lives of countless visually impaired individuals.

Term of MCC Corporators to end in October

- Five-year term saw 4 women Mayors and one Deputy
- Shivakumar may continue as Mysuru Mayor till Oct. 5

Pushpalatha Tasneem Rukmini Sunanda Shivakumar Roopa

Mysuru, May 20 (RK&DM)- With the five-year term of the Mysuru City Corporation (MCC) Corporators coming to an end this October, questions are being raised on whether the elections will be held before the current term concludes.

The last MCC polls was held on Aug.31, 2018 and the counting of votes was taken up on Sept.3. All the elected Corporators then had taken oath of office on Oct.5, 2018 following which the Mayoral polls of the first tenure for one year took place on Nov.17, when Pushpalatha Jagannath of the Congress was elected the Mayor and Shafi Ahmed as her deputy. She was later succeeded by Tasneem of the JD(S), who became the Mayor at a young age.

Subsequently, Rukmini Madegowda became the Mayor in the third term, when she was disqualified by the Karnataka High Court and as such her Mayoral term was cut short to just three months.

After Rukmini's disqualification, Anwar Baig, who was Deputy Mayor then, functioned as Acting Mayor from May 26, 2021 to Aug. 25, 2021.

Thereafter, Sunanda Palanetra became the first ever Mayor from the BJP and held the post from Aug. 25, 2021 to Sept. 6, 2022.

Later, Shivakumar, also of the BJP, occupied the post in the Mayoral polls held on Sept.6, 2022 and has continued to function as Mayor with Dr. G. Roopa of the BJP as his deputy.

The speciality of this five-year term is that the MCC saw as many as 4 women Mayors and one Deputy Mayor. The tenure of the current Mayor and Deputy Mayor comes to an end on Sept.6, 2023 and it is to be seen whether the MCC polls will be held on time later this year, now as a new Congress Government has taken over in the State.

Sources in Municipal Administration Department said that Mayor Shivakumar and his Deputy Dr. Roopa may continue for one more month (till Oct.5) as the term (2018-2023) of the current MCC is scheduled to come to an end on Oct.5. With this possible extension, Mayor Shivakumar may get another chance to take part in Dasara.

Mysuru, May 20- KR Constituency MLA T.S. Srivatsa inaugurated the ten-day Gruha Shobhe International Trade Fair Exhibition and three-day Automobile Expo at Maharaja's College Grounds here on Friday.

Bike stunt, which is the main attraction at this year's Gruha Shobhe, will conclude on Sunday. Trade Fair will be held from May 19 to 28; Automobile Expo from May 19 to 21; Interiors and Furniture Expo from May 24 to 28 — all between 11 am and 9 pm.

There are more than 200 stalls displaying branded products like electronics, appliances, automobiles, furniture, paintings, carpets, modular kitchens among other products. Besides huge discounts and surprise gifts, many attractive offers on different products are also available. Separate food stalls have also been put up at the venue.

WORD OF THE DAY

Engender

Pronunciation: in-JEN-der.
Meaning: Engender is a formal word that means "to produce; to cause to exist or to develop." It is used especially when feelings and ideas are generated.
Origin: A good paragraph about engender will engender understanding in the reader. Like its synonym generate, engender comes from the Latin verb generare, meaning "to generate" or "to beget," and when the word was first used in the 14th century, engender meant "propagate" or "procreate." That literal meaning having to do with creating offspring (which generate shared when it was adopted in the early 16th century) was soon joined by the "to cause to exist or develop; to produce" meaning most familiar to us today. Generare didn't just engender generate and engender; regenerate, degenerate, and generation have the same Latin root. As you might suspect, the list of engender relatives does not end there. Generare comes from the Latin noun genus, meaning "origin" or "kind." From this source we took our own word genus, plus gender, general, and generic, among other words.

THE ODD WORD

Eclaircissement

Clarification; enlightenment.

PHRASE OF THE DAY

Elbow grease

Meaning: Energetic labour.
Origin: It has long been said that the best sort of furniture polish is 'elbow-grease', that is, there is no substitute for hard rubbing to create a lustrous shine. The term itself is older than might be imagined and dates back to at least the 17th century when it was used in print by the English metaphysical poet Andrew Marvell in Rehearsal Transpros'd, 1672: Two or three brawny Fellows in a Corner, with meer Ink and Elbow-grease, do more Harm than an Hundred systematical Divines with their sweaty Preaching. Marvell was suggesting that, although religious meetings could be disrupted or broken up by the speakers' opponents, printed material could be circulated unhindered. Of course, Marvell was alluding to writing when he used the figurative expression 'elbow-grease'. It was also used later in the same century, as it is used now, just to mean sweat or effort. An example of that usage is found in the 1699 A New Dictionary of the Terms Ancient and Modern of the Canting Crew: Elbow-grease, a derisory Term for Sweat. The expression's inclusion in that dictionary suggests that it was a lower-class term. Other countries have expression that are near-enough identical. In French we have 'huile de bras' or 'l'huile de coude', which translate as 'elbow-grease' and in Danish we find 'knofedt', which translates as 'knuckle fat'.

The wheel that squeaks the loudest is the one that gets the grease.
